

Exposing Predatory Behavior in the Gacha Community: The Case of Dakota Reynolds

A serious warning has been raised about a 23-year-old Gacha Tuber named Dakota Reynolds, who has allegedly engaged in predatory behavior toward minors in the community for over three years. Reports suggest Dakota has repeatedly tagged young users in his posts, drawing them into private chats where he pressures them into inappropriate conversations, explicit roleplay, and even requests for photos of their private areas. Evidence indicates he may have targeted over 10 minors as young as age 11, leaving many feeling violated and traumatized for years to come.

When confronted, Dakota has reportedly responded with threats, false accusations, and demands for his critics' private information, even claiming he would seek them out. He's known to be highly manipulative, deflecting responsibility by blaming his actions on autism or others, and has even defended NSFW roleplay between adults and minors. His Twitter also includes NSFW content, further raising concerns about his behavior and intentions.

The community is urged to report Dakota and stay vigilant, especially to protect young members from further harm. By spreading awareness, we can help create a safer, more supportive environment for everyone in the Gacha community.

Introduction to the Evidence

In this section, we'll share evidence of Dakota Reynolds' harmful actions in the Gacha community, including his inappropriate behavior toward minors and attempts to manipulate and guilt-trip his victims. The following examples show just how serious his actions have been and why it's important to take a stand.

Evidence of Inappropriate Behavior Toward Minors

These images show a conversation where Dakota repeatedly asks a 13-year-old minor to send explicit pictures of their private area.

Bro here's something you have to understand
Most of us are below 18 and most of us are minors
I hate to say
That sounds like pedo stuff

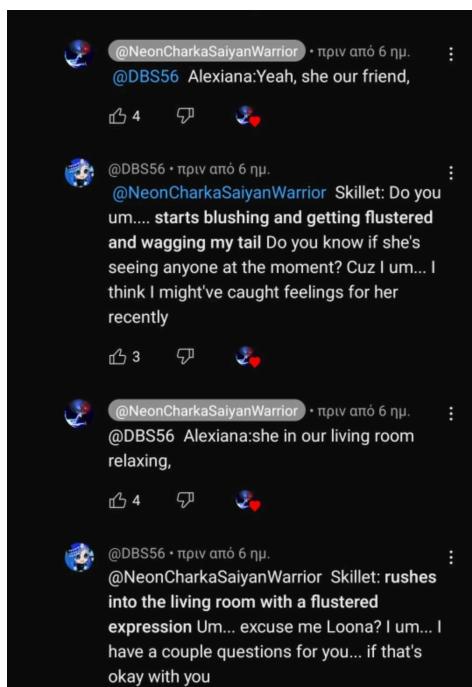

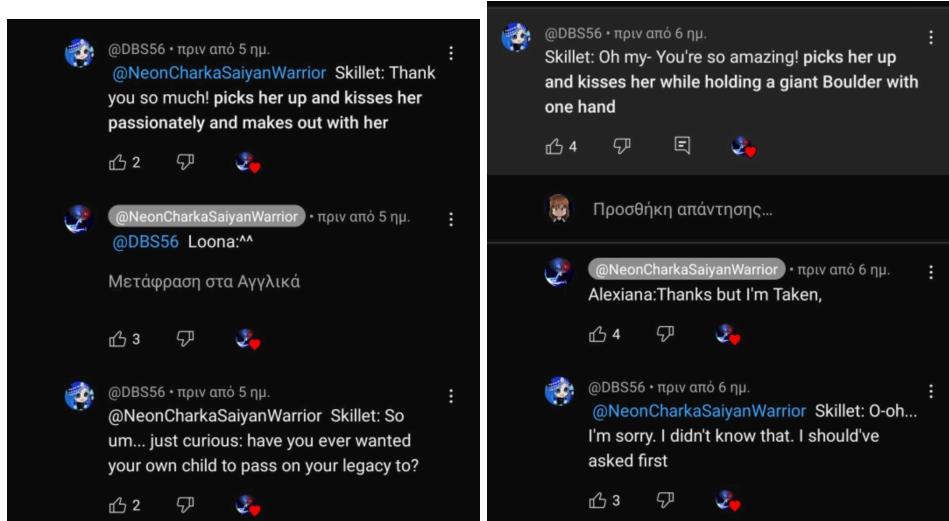

These very recent (as of 7th November 2024) images show Dakota in a minor's comment section attempting to engage in sexual roleplay, followed by his request for the minor to add him on Discord for private conversations.

Additionally, he has been repeatedly tagging various YouTube channels, many of which are owned by minors, in an attempt to get them to add him on Discord, become friends with him, and unban him from their servers.

He is obsessively and relentlessly harassing minors and others, repeatedly asking them to unblock him, become friends again, and talk to him.

He has tagged many of them multiple times, often without any end. This behavior is disturbing and unacceptable.

Manipulative Tactics

Here, Dakota is using manipulation and guilt-tripping tactics to make his victims feel guilty and pressure them into unblocking him:

To Andy and Dex: You both seem to think holding a grudge is helping the situation, when in reality it's actually hurting it! I NEARLY LOST EVERYTHING BECAUSE OF THE DRAMA INVOLVING ANDY! AND YOU BOTH ARE STILL UNABLE TO LET IT GO AND FORGIVE!? That honestly sounds quite selfish of you both, I must say. I expected better from you both, as "mature" as you claim to be. Oh, and Andy? I have a few important questions for you if you're reading this. Let's hope you're "mature" enough to talk to me long enough for me to get some decent replies from you. Do you see what you've done now? You've caused so much trouble, that it's torn our online family apart! I hope you're happy with yourselves Andy and Dex... I know I'm not any better, but you could've at least been a bit nicer about the whole thing instead of having a third party interfering with things

Okay Andy, do you remember what this image was from? It was from a comment I made to you awhile back. I wanna see if you can remember which comment it was.

Andy, one of his main victims, blocked him after he asked her to send explicit photos and tried to engage in inappropriate roleplay with her. Since then, he has obsessively guilt-tripped her, using various tactics to force her to unblock him and resume talking to him.

So, back around the end of 2021, I believe, that's where Dakota started being all affectionate to me, especially like in RP style

He would say flattery words to me, I guess in his case to lure me in. And I hate to say, it worked, and then as time went by, Dakota started being more sexual in his roleplays, in ways where it was so freakishly disgusting it actually makes me sick

But I pushed it aside because I thought it was nothing. These roleplays were getting too far where it even got to the point the RP led to my OC getting pregnant. I know, disgusting. Also, my OC, Andy is the same age as me, I was 14 or 15 at the time. Getting a kid pregnant is disgusting.

And onto the main reason was because he too asked me for a picture of my private area, but I'm glad I knew better and I said no. But he said he was sorry and he didn't know what was wrong with him. He knew I was a kid, and he knew he was self-aware, so I call bullshit

This "man" has done horrible things to people especially tried convincing the people who defended me that he wasn't in the wrong. He was and I know it

Here, Dakota admits to asking Andy for explicit photos, yet instead of apologizing, he shifts the blame onto someone else. ↓

GOLDENGOKU/Isekai 01/02/2023 6:58 MM

But anyways... The reason why I asked ANDY that question originally started because of my "former friend" SG, who apparently craves nsfw roleplay and incet$e roleplay as well. He one day made a private server for him, me and a friend of ours. Then one day, he suddenly asked if me and our friend wanted to see his... "Rod" if you know what I mean.

GOLDENGOKU/Isekai 01/02/2023 6:54 MM

Yeah... I guess you're right. Can I at least tell you the reason behind why I asked ANDY that specific question? (If that's Okay with you)

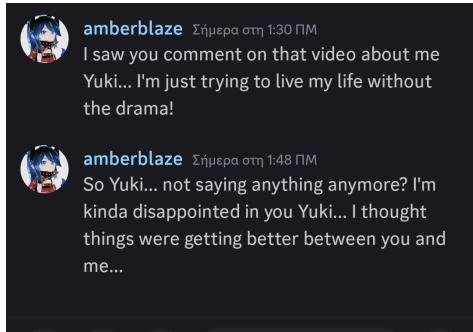

Hanevi 01/02/2023 6:52 MM

Just leave Andy alone, you don't need to explain anything to her, just leave things as they are and move on, don't try to talk to people who don't want to talk to you shifts the blame onto someone else. ↓

Here is a recent photo of Dakota attempting to guilt-trip a 13-year-old, who was once his friend but turned against him after seeing the evidence.

(Amberblaze is Dakota)

Another terrible thing Dakota did was reach out to a Gacha ranter and falsely claim that my friend Marvic, who is doing his best to stop Dakota's harmful actions, was actually the one responsible for them. As a result, the ranter posted a one-hour video on YouTube, falsely accusing Marvic of things he never did and trashing his reputation.

Galaxy Princess : Defending Dakota Reynolds After His Predatory Actions:

Galaxy Princess, an adult Gacha YouTuber, is deeply responsible for the harm in this situation. Instead of supporting the victims, she's been defending Dakota Reynolds, despite clear evidence of his predatory behavior. She's tried to downplay his actions and even excused his manipulation and harassment. The most shocking part is when she claimed she wouldn't care if someone sexually harassed her brother, just because they didn't get along. This shows a disturbing lack of empathy and an inability to understand the damage Dakota has caused, especially to minors.

By defending him, Galaxy has made it harder for the victims, showing that she's more focused on protecting Dakota than acknowledging the harm he's done.

Alright so here it go.

I was 13 when this happened he was 20. What went down was i was in class and he had asked me to not tell anyone about what he's going to ask me. I was a little confused and said to myself this couldn't be good. So I said ok. He asked me for a picture of my "yk". Practically begged me and told me can I make sure it's... eugh this is weird to talk about. Told me to go to the bathroom, somewhere private. The asshole knew my age I even asked him. He knew he was wrong cause once I showed a friend he asked them why did I tell someone. Cause he knew it was up for him.

I agreed to do it though I didn't so i can lure him to exposure. Use to trust him but dude is living proof of people will show their true colors when they want to.

Akirittø-Tempest Σήμερα στις 3:24 MM

You know how much that shit turned my stomach?

As one of the victims and the others in the position seeing his "supporters" back him up made me wonder how can God let this people see another day?

Deflecting Responsibility

Here is evidence of Dakota attempting to excuse his actions by using autism as an excuse and blaming others. By doing so, he perpetuates harmful stereotypes about autistic people and those with ADHD being child predators. This is not only deeply troubling but also shows a lack of understanding of the mental health conditions he's using as a shield.

Here's some evidence for anyone that doesn't believe my side of things

Co-occurring conditions

It's common for people to have both conditions, and some research suggests that 28-70% of people with ASD also have ADHD.

Internal struggles

People with both conditions, also known as AuDHD, may experience an internal struggle between the contrasting traits of the two conditions. For example, someone with AuDHD may crave novelty while also seeking routine and sameness.

Heightened characteristics

People with AuDHD may experience heightened versions of the shared characteristics of ADHD and ASD, such as intense focus on interests or challenges with socializing.

Balancing act

Yes, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) and autism spectrum disorder (ASD) can affect each other:

Managing both conditions can be difficult, and solutions that help with one condition can make the other worse. This can lead to frustration, exhaustion, and burnout.

Moreover, In this evidence, Dakota attempts to shift the blame for his actions onto someone else, refusing to take responsibility for his predatory behavior.

Justifying Inappropriate Behavior

Here's evidence of Dakota claiming that it's okay for an adult to engage in NSFW roleplays with minors. Very messed up.

This document sheds light on Dakota Reynolds' harmful actions, including manipulating minors, engaging in inappropriate behavior, and avoiding responsibility for his actions. It's important that we report his behavior to the right authorities and platforms to protect others from harm. However, we should avoid harassment or escalating the situation. If anyone chooses to reach out to him, it should be with the goal of helping him understand the severity of his actions and encouraging him to change. Our priority should be supporting the victims, keeping the community safe, and holding him accountable without causing further harm.

Credits and Acknowledgment

We want to give special thanks to those who have helped expose Dakota's actions and protect the community over the years. Their efforts have been essential in this fight.
